HALIFAX TOWN

The name of Halifax Town will not be found on any of football's major trophies and, in fact, they seem to have spent a lot of their time fighting to stay in League football. But on the three occasions that they have clashed with North End in the League they remained unbeaten,

They drew 1–1 at Deepdale in 1970–71 and then beat us 1–0 at The Shay and this season our visit to Halifax brought a 3–0 defeat.

Now Halifax are again near the bottom of the table while North End are looking for points just as eagerly but for a different reason.

The Halifax club came into existence in 1911 and was one of the original members of the Third Division (North) in 1921.

They were runners-up in the Division in 1934–35 in the days when only the champions of the South and North sections were promoted and they managed to stay in the Third Division until 1963, though on six occasions they had to apply for re-election to the League.

After dropping into the Fourth Division they had to apply for re-election on yet another occasion but in 1968–69, as runners-up, they gained promotion to Division Three.

In 1970–71 they again came near to gaining Second Division status with 56 points, which were bettered only by the champions, North End (61), and runners-up, Fulham (60).

There was a certain amount of extra rivalry between our two clubs in that season because North End had just taken Alan Ball from Halifax to be manager at Deepdale.

Two lean years followed for the Yorkshire club but last season they had a respectable record which was:

W.14 D.21 L.11 F.48 A.51 Pts.49

Tuesday night's 4–0 defeat at Wrexham leaves them still without an away win this season and their record on opponents' grounds so far is

P.12 W.0 D.4 L.8 Goals F.8 A.29

Besides Alan Ball, their managers have included Willie Watson, the England footballer-cricketer, and Vic Metcalfe.

In October last year, after League gates had fallen to below 2,000, chairman Mr. Percy Albon advocated a return to the system of two Third Divisions, one for the North and one for the South, to bring about more local derbies and to save on travelling expenses for journeys to far away clubs.

The transfer fee of £40,000 which they collected when Alan Waddle joined Liverpool must have been more than welcome!

MANAGER

As with the case of Bobby Charlton at Deepdale, John Quinn occupies the dual role of player-manager at Halifax and until the recent appointment of Syd Farrimond, ex-Bolton full back, he was also coach.

He started his professional career with Sheffield Wednesday in 1959 and in the next nine years made 230 League appearances for them. He also played in the 1966 Cup Final when Wednesday lost 2–3 to Everton.

From Wednesday, he went to Rotherham, for whom he played for four seasons, leaving to join Halifax in 1972. Last season he made 45 first team appearances and was appointed coach in the close season and player-manager-coach in September.

KEEP OFF

Please do not damage the advertisements facing the pitch or obscure them, and KEEP OFF THE GRASS. The playing area must be kept clear of spectators. Needless damage is done when supporters go on to it. THIS MUST CEASE, otherwise well-behaved youngsters as well as offenders may be penalised. You can cheer from the terraces.

RECORD REQUESTS

Supporters wishing to have a record played in the pre-match or half-time entertainment spots over the public address system should send their requests to the Secretary, Deepdale, Preston, marking their envelope in the bottom left hand corner "D.J."

CHARLT

After what seems like a long absence from home we are back at Deepdale to face a Battle of the Roses which gives us a chance to avenge the 3–0 defeat at Halifax earlier in the season.

Only Plymouth have a better home record and the players realise that every home game from now on must be won to keep us in the championship race. Away from home we have been doing nicely with three points from the last two games and it is heartening to think that these results were obtained not by luck but by sheer hard work and application. They are responding magnificently to the challenge and are determined to give our loyal supporters the reward of Second Division football next season.

Many people seem to think that the season is nearly over once we get into the new year but that is far from so. With 18 matches still to go, many of which will be fiercely contested by other promotion contenders, the most testing period of the season lies ahead. Every point is vital but the way things are going for us I feel optimism is justified.

We hope the improvement in the weather is maintained to enable fixtures to be completed without further interruption.

ON CHAT

Postponements cause disruption of training routine and the reserves have been particularly unlucky in this respect.

It was unfortunate that many of our supporters had a fruitless journey to Chesterfield a fortnight ago and this match, which we had hoped to bring forward to ease the glut of fixtures at Easter, will now revert to its original date.

For the moment, we feel it is better to take one game at a time rather than worry about the programme as a whole and this seems to be working out well. Today, for instance, we must concentrate on erasing the memory of that defeat at The Shay. We did not play badly but things went against us and it started us off on a run of four successive defeats.

It was great to have the club back on the international scene with Tony Morley in the England under-23 team, Stephen Doyle in the Welsh youth side and Ray Treacy's continued selection by Eire. Tony is a great asset to North End and I think he will go far, and Stephen is outstanding amongst the many young players who I am confident will ensure a rosy future for North End.

On a disciplinary note, the club does not have a bad record for bookings but the players are still conscious that they must avoid clashes with the referees. To be deprived of any of our first team squad for a few matches at this stage of the season could be disastrous and it is not easy to avoid trouble when even a word out of place can lead to a caution.

OUR DIVISION

The major development in the Division since Christmas has been Blackburn's loss of the leadership as a result of their defeat at Plymouth.

Plymouth's rise from 14th place at the beginning of October has been quite remarkable. They had gone 16 matches without defeat before they lost to Everton in the Cup but this defeat obviously did not put them out of their League stride as they went to Watford last week and won 3–1 and on Tuesday established their right to the top spot by a 2–1 win over Blackburn.

Rovers had led the race since the beginning of October and two successive defeats, one of them at home, must raise the question of whether this is yet another season when the Ewood men will fail in the second half of the season.

Perhaps too much should not be written into their defeat at Plymouth, where the Devonians have been unbeaten so far this season and it will be interesting to see the outcome of today's visit to Plymouth of Charlton Athletic, who lie third in the table.

And, of course, North End will be Argyle's visitors on March 18th, giving the leaders a chance to check all three of their closest rivals before the busy Easter programme is embarked upon.

Big Bill Rafferty, the striker signed from Blackpool, and ex-Chorley forward Paul Mariner, are two of the men behind Argyle's push for promotion but the club also clearly owe a lot to the inspiration and guidance of manager Tony Waiters.

Another hard game for North End is the re-arranged home match with Swindon which will now be on February 18th. The Wiltshire club have games in hand and the fact that they were 9th in the table last week-end does not necessarily mean they should be written off.

Port Vale, after a good run, seem to be flagging, but could still have the best chance amongst the outsiders.

At the other end of the table Huddersfield, with the worst defensive record in the Division, are in deep trouble but there are at least seven or eight clubs for whom the danger of relegation is a real one.

Two teams that are to be congratulated on having fought clear of the desperate situation they were in earlier in the season at Gillingham and Grimsby, though for the Lincolnshire club the battle may still not be won.

SNAP SHOTS

Football League attendances this season up to the end of December slightly more than held their own compared with last year, despite a fall in average gates for the First Division.

During that period the total was 14,053,853 for 1,121 matches, an average of 12,537 per game compared with 12,528 for the same period last season.

But while attendances at First Division matches dropped from 28,408 to 26,697, the averages for both Second and Third Division games were up by over 1,000 in each case.

The Third Division leads the way on goals scored in matches this season with a total of 895. The Fourth Division follows closely with 887 while the First Division total is 799 and and Second, 701.

Not surprisingly, the Third Division has the most prolific marksmen, the leading men being:

Buckley (Walsall) 24
Eastoe (Swindon)..... 21
Rafferty (Plymouth) 21
McNeil (Hereford) 20

Mel Holden's goal on Saturday at Southend brought him up to 19.

Today's visitors, Halifax, had a disastrous night at Wrexham on Tuesday. Besides losing 4–0 their recent £10,000 signing from Derby, Ken Blair, was sent off and they can ill afford to lose his goal scoring abilities through suspension.
